CiCy Suds: Fiddle No More

Sometimes, grown-up clothes make us feel like kids again. Between tugging at your collar, fiddling with your cuffs and twisting your spaghetti straps into oblivion, your clothes have somehow become Fidget Toys.

Take it off already – and throw on something you actually feel good in, like Gail Schneider Designs' T-shirts for the trendy comfort-fiend in all of us.

Alma's a classic with a twist: We love the blue accent and beading details on this bright pink tank.

Feel like springtime all over again in Gail's Tank – a signature buttercream yellow shirt with sweet white lace designs.

And for a naughty evening on the town, keep it simple with Mical – because nothing gets between you and your cosmo. Especially not silly bell sleeves or wrap-around-sweater tie thingies.

No two shirts are exactly alike, so you know you're wearing something original – and just by mentioning you're a CiCy reader either by phone or email, you'll receive 15 percent off your purchase AND free shipping.

Perhaps you'll be so confident in your sassy style (and common-sense frugality), you won't have any nervous energy left to fidget with.

Thank heavens. You were making us tired just watching you.
Love ya,
The MyCiCy Team

P.S. Special thanks to CiCy Girl Editor, Taylor Bowles, for her contributions!
